

Hailing from Brisbane, based in Sydney and made from local and imported ingredients, Lizzy Hoo is a regular on the Australian comedy circuit. She made the NSW Raw State Finals in 2017 and a year later was invited to perform at Just For Laughs Sydney at the Opera House, which was later aired on Foxtel's Comedy Central.

In 2019, she performed her first solo show Hoo am I? What's my name? to sold out audiences at Melbourne International Comedy Festival and Sydney Comedy Festival where she performed two encore shows due to overwhelming demand.

For Lizzy, comedy is a way for her to make sense of the world and to make fun of her family. In her first three years of comedy she has largely spoken about her ethnicity and her family, in particular her larger-than-life father Chan.

In a short time, she has shared the stage with international and local comedy legends including Gretel Killeen, Rove, Matt Okine, Jackie Loeb, Rhys Nicholson, Nazeem Hussain and Tommy Little.
